HUGHES ASKS MOVE TO LET IN JAPANESE

REBUFF PREDICTED FOR PLEA TO ALLOW IMMIGRATION QUOTA

Washington, Feb. 15.—Chairman Albert Johnson and other members of the house immigration committee appeared disinclined to comply with the suggestion made by Secretary C. E. Hughes that Japan be placed on the same quota basis as other nations in the immigration bill pending before the committee.

Mr. Hughes, in a letter placed before the committee, said provisions of the bill which "single out Japanese immigrants for exclusion" are "inconsistent" with the treaty of 1911, and, if enacted, might "largely undo the work of the Washington conference on limitation of armament which so greatly improved our relations with Japan."

On the other hand, he said, if the provisions for certification of immigrants abroad were permitted to apply to Japanese, not only a "double control over the Japanese quota of less than 250 a year," under the measure's quota basis of 2 per cent of 1890 alien census figures would be attained, but the Tokio government could be expected to co-operate in preventing surreptitious entry of Japanese into this country.

Pointing out that the Japanese government already has brought the matter to the attention of the state department, and urging elimination of the exclusion provision, Mr. Hughes declared he was unable to perceive that it was "necessary." Mr. Johnson, however, in commenting on the secretary's letter, which was made public last night, said 14 of the 17 members of the committee had approved the provision and predicted it would remain in the bill.

Washington, Feb. 15.—Officials high in the government lost heavily in stock market plunges a year or more ago and a $1,000,000 slush fund was used to cover the losses, according to private information given today as a tip to the senate committee investigating the oil reserve scandal.

When the plight of the officials became known to some of their friends in Wall street, one million dollars is said to have been raised and transferred from a New York to a Washington bank.

Relation of the $1,000,000 fund to the oil scandal is expected to be established by disclosures showing that big oil men subscribed the money.

This money was used purely as a loan, according to the story to the committee, and all repaid but $200,000.

ALLEGED "BREAD TRUST" INVESTIGATION

Washington, Feb. 15.—Federal investigation of charges that a "bread trust" is robbing American consumers of nearly $500,000,000 annually was promised by senate progressives here today.

The charges were made on a report to Senator LaFollette and other progressives by Basil Manly, head of the people's legislative service.

Headed by LaFollette, the progressive group met today to draft a resolution calling for thorough sifting of his facts pertaining to the manufacture of bread from harvesting of wheat to the selling of loaves over the counter.

(By United Press)
London, Feb. 15.—One million dock workers prepared today to quit work tomorrow and tie up every port in the United Kingdom unless a last minute settlement can solve the strike situation.

Scenes at the huge docks of the ports of London at daybreak were of unprecedented activities as shipping companies speeded efforts to clear cargoes before the impending paralysis of the transportation system.

Dock workers' executives and employers were in conference, seeking to break the deadlock that has existed since February 1. The threatened strike is national in scope.

The men's complaint is wages since 1920 have fallen from 16 shillings a day in the larger ports and 15 shillings a day in the smaller ports to 10 and nine shillings respectively.

president's newspaper, ought to be investigated, faced the senate Teapot Dome investigating committee today.

Examination of Vanderlip was begun by Senator Lenroot of his speech near Ossining on Lincoln's birthday. "On the evening of February 12th, did you make a speech at Ossining?" "No, at Briar Cliffs, near Ossining. The subject was 'Courage in Leadership.'"

"You are credited in the newspapers as having said at that time there was something wrong with the sale of the Marion Star by the late president?"

"What I said was that there were rumors in Washington and current throughout the United States and among the rumors this story. That is substantially what I said the rumor or was. I said the rumors rose far above gossip."

"I admit I had no facts to substantiate the rumors. 'It was something like the whispering campaign that was heard in the months before Mr. Harding's election. I believed out of respect for the memory of Mr. Harding, that these scandalous rumors should be downed.'"

"What information did you have?" Lenroot asked.

"Only of having heard this story from responsible people."

"And you thought it your duty to give it publicity?"

"I thought it my particular duty." Louis R. Brush and Roy D. Moore who bought the Marion Star in June, 1923, from Mr. Harding, were in the committee room ready to testify after Vanderlip.

Senator Walsh called his attention as the hearing started to a newspaper story which stated the subpoena for Vanderlip was issued at the request of democrats.

"I desire to say that if any democrats conferred about the matter I did not know it and I do not believe it," Walsh said.

Walsh then told of how the subpoena was issued. He said he met Senator Lenroot privately and that they agreed Vanderlip should be subpoenaed.

Lenroot then made a statement concurring.

"I regret that knowledge of negotiating them should be made in this connection," Walsh said.

Continuing his statement, Vanderlip said:

"As the rumors were known in every newspaper office, it seemed to me about time for it to be brought to the surface and the scandal stopped."

"Did you say that in your speech?" asked Lenroot.

"I did."

"Then you cannot give this committee any information?"

G. F. MITCHELL AND W. E. CORKREY ARE GUESTS AT BANQUET

SILAS ZWIGHT, J. P. ANDERSON AND OTHERS COMPLIMENTED
THE TWO MEN

MITCHELL SERVED NORTHERN PACIFIC 33 YEARS, CORKREY
25 YEARS

Silas Zwright, of St. Paul, general mechanical superintendent of the Northern Pacific railway; J. P. Anderson, shop superintendent of the Brainerd railway shops of the company and other local shop foremen and visiting officials of the Northern Pacific, vied in paying compliments to the two guests of the evening, G. F. Mitchell, shop foreman, who had served the company 33 years without interruption as a foreman, and W. E. Corkrey, foreman of the tool room, who had served 25 years, and whose retirement, under pension rules of the company, recently took place.

The scene of the happy occasion was the banquet tendered Messrs. Mitchell and Corkrey by the shop foremen's association at the Ransford hotel Thursday evening and the large assemblage was a notable one and was especially pleased with the way the toastmaster of the evening, J. F. Casey, officiated.

The banquet was not attended by men alone, for some of the officials brought their wives and two of them, Mrs. J. P. Anderson and Mrs. C. D. McKay delivered pleasing talks.

At the head of the banquet table were seated the two guests of honor, G. F. Mitchell and W. E. Corkrey. Among the officials and shop foremen present were:

St. Paul—Silas Zwright, general mechanical superintendent; his assistant, C. E. Allen; John Davis, general boiler inspector; J. E. Neish, master mechanic; Harry Robertson, master car builder; W. S. Brown of drafting department.

Staples—F. L. Newman, general foreman; N. P. White, master mechanic; G. E. Lynch, assistant round house foreman; G. A. Smith, boiler shop foreman.

Duluth, John Marshall, master mechanic.

Brainerd, J. P. Anderson, shop superintendent; H. L. Jones, division storekeeper; M. H. Nelson, general foreman; George Fox, assistant general foreman; N. K. Fullerton, general car shop foreman; John Russell, car foreman; Tom Willis, mill foreman; Anton Gilbertson, assistant car foreman; Nels Jepson, assistant car foreman; William Smythe, assistant car foreman; Edward Crust, foreman blacksmith shop; Lloyd Jones, assistant foreman blacksmith shop; R. E. Greger, boiler shop foreman; J. F. Elkins, assistant foreman boiler shop; W. H. Canan, round house foreman; Wm. Brown, machine foreman; J. A. McKay, assistant machine foreman; H. L. Palmer, rod foreman; A. Forsyth, asst. machine foreman; Ralph Strickler, pump room foreman; John Hill, painter foreman; C. D. McKay, erecting foreman; J. F. Tillquist, tin shop foreman; Dan Doran, foreman.

The Talks Given
Toastmaster J. F. Casey said the assemblage was honored in having as its guests Messrs. Mitchell and Corkrey, the occasion being their retirement from active service in Northern Pacific railway shop work. He introduced as the first speaker of the evening, J. P. Anderson, superintendent of the Brainerd shops.

Superintendent Anderson said:

"While other large railroads in the country were establishing pension systems to take care of their old em-

McADOO TO PLACE HIS NAME IN PERSON BEFORE DEMOCRATS

(By United Press)
Chicago, Feb. 15.—William Gibbs McAdoo will place his name in person before the conference of democrats and other McAdoo supporters called here for Monday to determine whether he shall stay in the presidential race in the face of his connection with the Teapot Dome investigation.

McAdoo will arrive here Sunday, his headquarters announced. The conference was called at McAdoo's suggestion.

ADDITIONAL FLIGHTS IN ATTEMPT TO CROSS COUNTRY SANCTIONED

ployes, we were very anxious to know what the old Northern Pacific railway was going to do to take care of their old, faithful employees.

"We now have a pension system which provides that employees who reach the age of seventy years are to be retired."

"Our records show that you, Mr. Mitchell, entered the service of the Northern Pacific railway company as foreman of the pipe and tin shop, June 21st, 1891, and you, Mr. Corkrey, as tool room foreman, Dec. 9th, 1898. This gives Mr. Mitchell a continuous service record with the company of a little better than thirty-three years, and the distinction of serving the company in the capacity of foreman at Brainerd shops a longer period of time than any other foreman on the job at this time, his entire career with the company being that of foreman."

"For your good and faithful service you are now rewarded by being retired with pay that will take care of you for the rest of your days, and as both you gentlemen are blessed with exceptional good health, for men of your age, we sincerely hope that your good health may continue and that you may enjoy to the fullest extent the fruits of your labors."

"During the time of your employment you have always been found dependable and loyal to the company, as well as to your organization and the men you represented. Your counsel was always found timely and good, not only as foremen but to the members of this organization, and I feel safe in saying that no doubt your counsel and good advice at times when good judgment was necessary has had a great deal to do with keeping the ship off the rocks and steering it to safety."

"Do you all realize that government, that home, that family, and even industrial enterprise cannot long endure or be successful without loyalty? It is necessary to a real civilization. While on this occasion I experience both feelings of regret and pleasure—regret because of my leaving the active service of the company and pleasure because this event is the fruition of honorable, loyal service—nevertheless, to me the pleasure experienced far outweighs the feeling of regret because this event shows plainly the value of loyalty both on your part and on the part of the company. The company has shown that it has not forgotten."

"Now that we have quite a number of Northern Pacific employees pensioned, I would suggest you two gentlemen interest yourselves in forming an Old Timers Organization, such as is, or similar to that now in office on the Great Northern. This organization, I understand, is for the purpose of caring for employees' widows who might be left to be cared for, which is a worthy cause, and I feel you could make such an organization a valuable one to the

BANDITS SHOOT TO KILL IN A ST. PAUL PAY-ROLL HOLDUP

3 PROBABLY FATALY WOUND
MIKE MISCHUK, STEAL HIS
$1,500 PAYROLL

LOOT FOUND SHORT DISTANCE
FROM SCENE OF CRIME, ROB-
BERS LOSING SAME

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Feb. 15.—Three bandits this forenoon shot and probably fatally wounded Mike Mischuk before robbing him of a $1,500 payroll which he was carrying from a bank to his store.

Two of the men tried to pull Mischuk into the automobile where a third member of the gang was sitting at the wheel. Both of the robbers leveled their revolvers at him and when he offered resistance, one of them shot him through the abdomen.

Physicians at Ancker hospital said Mischuk probably will die.

The bandits escaped.

Police later announced that the $1,500 payroll was found intact a short distance from the scene of the crime. The bandits evidently lost the bag out of their car.

Mischuk is the proprietor of a soft drink parlor.

For more than a year he has drawn out money from the Products Exchange bank to cash checks of the workers at the shops nearby, sometimes as much as $4,000.

Today was the Great Northern payroll day and he had just drawn out money to cash the checks.

NEIGHORLY CHARITY BORN IN BERLIN'S NEED

Berlin, Feb. 14. — "Neighborhood charity" is being developed in Berlin by the "Auxiliary Troop of Women."

The city has been divided into 1,200 so-called villages, in each of which a neighborhood guild has been created.

Through these guilds, the charitable aid their less fortunate neighbors. For instance, one woman helps her neighbor cook. Another cares for her neighbor's children when the mother must go out to win the daily bread. Children are enlisted to assist the elderly in errands, such as fetching bread and coal.

Every member of the guild who has a warm room is obligated to share it with one or more neighbors who are unable to buy coal at the present prices. These auxiliary troops make no great show of their kindness. The poor who are too proud to reveal their poverty are discovered by the guilds and aided quietly with food and clothing.

The guilds are also taking an interest in the creation of community kitchens and feeding stations. They seek out public and private quarters where such institutions can be founded.

"I regret that knowledge of negotiating them should be made in this connection," Walsh said.

Continuing his statement, Vanderlip said:

"As the rumors were known in every newspaper office, it seemed to me about time for it to be brought to the surface and the scandal stopped."

"Did you say that in your speech?" asked Lenroot.

"I did."

G. F. MITCHELL AND W. E. CORKREY ARE GUESTS AT BANQUET

SILAS ZWIGHT, J. P. ANDERSON AND OTHERS COMPLIMENTED THE TWO MEN

MITCHELL SERVED NORTHERN PACIFIC 33 YEARS, CORKREY 25 YEARS

Silas Zwright, of St. Paul, general mechanical superintendent of the Northern Pacific railway; J. P. Anderson, shop superintendent of the Brainerd railway shops of the company and other local shop foremen and visiting officials of the Northern Pacific, vied in paying compliments to the two guests of the evening, G. F. Mitchell, shop foreman, who had served the company 33 years without interruption as a foreman, and W. E. Corkrey, foreman of the tool room, who had served 25 years, and whose retirement, under pension rules of the company, recently took place.

The scene of the happy occasion was the banquet tendered Messrs. Mitchell and Corkrey by the shop foremen's association at the Ransford hotel Thursday evening and the large assemblage was a notable one and was especially pleased with the way the toastmaster of the evening, J. F. Casey, officiated.

The banquet was not attended by men alone, for some of the officials brought their wives and two of them, Mrs. J. P. Anderson and Mrs. C. D. McKay delivered pleasing talks.

At the head of the banquet table were seated the two guests of honor, G. F. Mitchell and W. E. Corkrey. Among the officials and shop foremen present were:

St. Paul.—Silas Zwright, general mechanical superintendent; his assistant, C. E. Allen; John Davis, general boiler inspector; J. E. Nelsh, master mechanic; Harry Robertson, master car builder; W. S. Brown of drafting department.

Staples.—F. L. Newman, general foreman; N. P. White, master mechanic; G. E. Lynch, assistant round house foreman; G. A. Smith, boiler shop foreman.

Duluth, John Marshall, master mechanic.

Brainerd, J. P. Anderson, shop superintendent; H. L. Jones, division storekeeper; M. H. Nelson, general foreman; George Fox, assistant general foreman; D. K. Fullerton, general car shop foreman; John Russell, car foreman; Tom Willis, mill foreman; Anton Gilbertson, assistant car foreman; Nels Jepson, assistant car foreman; William Smythe, assistant car foreman; Edward Crust, foreman blacksmith shop; Lloyd Jones, assistant foreman blacksmith shop; R. E. Creger, boiler shop foreman; J. F. Elkins, assistant foreman boiler shop; W. H. Canan, round house foreman; Wm. Brown, machine foreman; J. A. McKay, assistant machine foreman; H. L. Palne, rod foreman; Al Forsyth, asst. machine foreman; Ralph Strickler, pump room foreman; John Hill, painter foreman; C. D. McKay, erecting foreman; J. F. Casey, erecting foreman; George Bislar, erecting foreman; Robert Crust, tool room foreman; Asher McKinley, chief engineer; Joe Midgley, car wheel foreman; Erick Kronberg, air brake foreman; Erick Westerberg, pattern shop foreman; Oscar E. Tillquist, tin shop foreman; Dan Doran, foreman.

The Talks Given

Toastmaster J. F. Casey said the assemblage was honored in having as its guests Messrs. Mitchell and Corkrey, the occasion being their retirement from active service in Northern Pacific railway shop work. He introduced as the first speaker of the evening, J. P. Anderson, superintendent of the Brainerd shops.

Superintendent Anderson said:

"While other large railroads in the country were establishing pension systems to take care of their old em-

McADOO TO PLACE HIS NAME IN PERSON BEFORE DEMOCRATS

(By United Press)
Chicago, Feb. 15.—William Gibbs McAdoo will place his name in person before the conference of democrats and other McAdoo supporters called here for Monday to determine whether he shall stay in the presidential race in the face of his connection with the Teapot Dome investigation.

McAdoo will arrive here Sunday, his headquarters announced. The conference was called at McAdoo's suggestion.

ADDITIONAL FLIGHTS IN ATTEMPT TO CROSS COUNTRY SANCTIONED

Dayton, Feb. 15.—McCook field officials have received the approval of the war department at Washington for additional flights by Lieut. R. L. Maughan, who will attempt to cross the continent on the famous dawn-to-dusk flights. Maughan will make his efforts sometime in June.

ployes, we were very anxious to know what the old Northern Pacific railway was going to do to take care of their old, faithful employes.

"We now have a pension system which provides that employes who reach the age of seventy years are to be retired.

"Our records show that you, Mr. Mitchell, entered the service of the Northern Pacific railway company as foreman of the pipe and tin shop, June 21st, 1891, and you, Mr. Corkrey, as tool room foreman, Dec. 9th, 1898. This gives Mr. Mitchell a continuous service record with the company of a little better than thirty-three years, and the distinction of serving the company in the capacity of foreman at Brainerd shops a longer period of time than any other foreman on the job at this time, his entire career with the company being that of foreman."

"For your good and faithful service you are now rewarded by being retired with pay that will take care of you for the rest of your days, and as both you gentlemen are blessed with exceptional good health, for men of your age, we sincerely hope that your good health may continue and that you may enjoy to the fullest extent the fruits of your labors."

"During the time of your employment you have always been found dependable and loyal to the company, as well as to your organization and the men you represented. Your counsel was always found timely and good, not only as foremen but to the members of this organization, and I feel safe in saying that no doubt your counsel and good advice at times when good judgment was necessary has had a great deal to do with keeping the ship off the rocks and steering it to safety."

"Do you all realize that government, that home, that family, and even industrial enterprise cannot long endure or be successful without loyalty? It is necessary to a real civilization. While on this occasion I experience both feelings of regret and pleasure—regret because of your leaving the active service of the company and pleasure because this event is the fruition of honorable, loyal service—nevertheless, to me the pleasure experienced far outweighs the feeling of regret because this event shows plainly the value of loyalty both on your part and on the part of the company. The company has shown that it has not forgotten."

"Now that we have quite a number of Northern Pacific employes pensioned, I would suggest you two gentlemen interest yourselves in forming an Old Timers Organization, such as is, or similar to that now in office on the Great Northern. This organization, I understand, is for the purpose of caring for employees' widows who might be left to be cared for, which is a worthy cause, and I feel you could make such an organization a valuable one to the company."

BANDITS SHOOT TO KILL IN A ST. PAUL PAY-ROLL HOLDUP

3 PROBABLY FATALY WOUND MIKE MISCHUK, STEAL HIS $1,500 PAYROLL

LOOT FOUND SHORT DISTANCE FROM SCENE OF CRIME, ROB- BERS LOSING SAME

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Feb. 15.—Three bandits this forenoon shot and probably fatally wounded Mike Mischuk before robbing him of a $1,500 payroll which he was carrying from a bank to his store.

Two of the men tried to pull Mischuk into the automobile where a third member of the gang was sitting at the wheel. Both of the robbers leveled their revolvers at him and when he offered resistance, one of them shot him through the abdomen.

Physicians at Ancker hospital said Mischuk probably will die. The bandits escaped.

Police later announced that the $1,500 pay roll was found intact a short distance from the scene of the crime. The bandits evidently lost the bag out of their car.

Mischuk is the proprietor of a soft drink parlor.

For more than a year he has drawn out money from the Products Exchange bank to cash checks of the workers at the shops nearby, sometimes as much as $4,000.

Today was the Great Northern pay day and he had just drawn out money to cash the checks.

NEIGHBORLY CHARITY BORN IN BERLIN'S NEED

Berlin, Feb. 14. — "Neighborly charity" is being developed in Berlin by the "Auxiliary Troop of Women."

The city has been divided into 1,200 so-called villages, in each of which a neighborhood guild has been created.

Through these guilds, the charitable aid their less fortunate neighbors. For instance, one woman helps her neighbor cook. Another cares for her neighbor's children when the mother must go out to win the daily bread. Children are enlisted to assist the elderly in errands, such as fetching bread and coal.

Every member of the guild who has a warm room is obligated to share it with one or more neighbors who are unable to buy coal at the present prices. These auxiliary troops make no great show of their kindness. The poor who are too proud to reveal their poverty are discovered by the guilds and aided quietly with food and clothing.

The guilds are also taking an interest in the creation of community kitchens and feeding stations. They seek out public and private quarters where such institutions can be founded.

Robins in Montana; Pussy Willows Sprout

Helena, Mont., Feb. 15.—Robins are appearing here and pussy willows have begun to sprout. Never has there been a milder winter, it is said, and never has there been signs of spring so early. There has been only one cold snap, and it was of short duration.

MORE SEPARATISTS KILLED BY MOBS

Dusseldorf, Feb. 15.—Durkheim mobs killed six separatists who took refuge with others in the city hall during the night. French troops dispersed the anti-separatists.

There was considerable movement of police and some troops during the night, but the situation in the Rhineland generally was quieter.

Brainerd Choral Society Notes
Since the choral season will soon be over it is expedient that all who have any intention of becoming members of the Brainerd Choral Society turn their intentions into actual membership before the end of this month. There are two weeks left in which to make decision. It would be much better, however, to ignore next week and decide right now to answer this question with a "Yes, I will" or "No, I will not." The words for the blank space neither look nor sound well, so please forget them and think only of the "Yes, I will" phrase. Now that you have made your decision you are cordially invited to meet with the society this evening in Mr. Brown's studio in the Iron Exchange hall at 8:15 o'clock.

If you have some friends who would like to hear what the society is doing, bring them along.

Bread Is Used To Clean Watches' Works

Chicago, Feb. 15.—One of the most unique uses found for bread is in the making of watches. The custom apparently dates back to very early times when watchmakers employed dough made by kneading fresh bread with water to remove foreign substances from the parts of timekeepers. No other substance so completely frees the small parts of a watch from oil and chips of metal as bread dough. The metal is absolutely clean after a rubbing with the dough. Modern watch factories use as many as 50 loaves of bread daily for this purpose.

Try and Hold out for "Six Days."

Rapid Growth

The popularity and rapid growth of chiropractic has led to imitations and bitter opposition from the older rival professions. In spite of these handicaps, chiropractic has grown rapidly in public favor due to results obtained upon patients who had tried many other methods without success before turning to the chiropractor as the last resort. At the present time, in 1924, chiropractic has won legal recognition in twenty-seven states and it is probable that during 1924 an additional number of states will fall in line. Such a phenomenal growth speaks volumes for this health method, which openly states that it differs from the practice of medicine in every particular.

The chiropractor does not operate to remove organs nor give medicine to increase internal secretions. He simply adjusts the movable segments of the spine to relieve the pressure on pinched nerves. And health is the natural result.

Tries Kellogg's Bran—restores health after 12 years of intense suffering

Mr. Firth writes that he suffered for 12 years from constipation and his friend for 10 years—a total of 22 years' suffering permanently relieved by Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled.

Gentlemen:
For 12 years I had been troubled with indigestion caused mostly by constipation. Until about a year ago, I would suffer from 4 to 29 weeks at a time.

I happened to see your Krumbled Bran in a store, purchased a package and got almost immediate relief. I am still eating the Krumbled Bran every day.

The most wonderful results obtained with your Krumbled Bran I will now relate. A gentleman who has been taking medicine for about 10 years for constipation could not find anything to give him relief. Three weeks ago I advised him to try Krumbled Bran, as I had told him what wonderful results I had gotten from it. The gentleman in question purchased a box, and he told me that for the first time in ten years he is regular without taking medicine.

Yours for success,
William Firth, Jr., 56 Volan St., Merchantville, N. J.

Eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran is guaranteed to relieve the most chronic case of constipation, or your grocer returns your money. Eat two table-spoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. The flavor is delicious. Try it in the recipes on every package. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by all grocers.

Great with Roast Pork!

Delicious cranberry sauce—made in ten minutes makes the finest relish with roast pork—and promotes digestion!

Whenserved with any kind of meat, cranberry sauce gives zest to the whole meal and helps balance the diet. Here's the proper way to make cranberry sauce—

Ten-Minute Cranberry Sauce

One quart cranberries, two cups boiling water, 1 1/2 to 2 cups sugar. Boil sugar and water together for five minutes; skim; add the cranberries and boil without stirring (five minutes is usually sufficient) until all the skins are broken. Remove from the fire when the popping stops.

And when you have the cranberry sauce, you can easily and quickly make many delicious desserts, such as cranberry pie, pudding, short-cake, tarts, etc.

To be sure of getting the choicest cultivated varieties, ask for Eatmor Cranberries. The red and blue trade-mark label is on all barrels and boxes.

And always cook cranberries in porcelain-lined or aluminum vessels.

SEMI-PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL

BRainerd baseball enthusiasts have received a communication from H. P. Marx, president of the Shakopee Baseball association, asking Brainerd fans to have a delegate at a meeting called at St. Francis hotel, St. Paul, Sunday, March 2, at 2 p. m., to organize a semi-professional baseball league of Minnesota for the protection of associations and for the purpose of promoting the spirit of fair play in all contests of the diamond.

The Dispatch does not believe in semi-professional baseball. Brainerd had a taste of it and the salaries demanded by semi-professional players were higher in the end than even league association men were said to receive. If we are to have any kind of home baseball, let it be purely amateur. That will develop our home men and give them a chance. The country outside of St. Paul and Minneapolis gains nothing in the end by importing semi-professional players from these cities, or other places, and in the bidding for their service have communities bid against each other and thus give the big city men or others an exaggerated idea of their own importance.

St. Cloud last year had a taste of semi-professional baseball and did not appear to relish it either. And now Shakopee gets the bug. Here is what President Marx of Shakopee writes:

"Shakopee proposes to back and support a semi-professional baseball club the coming summer, as it has for several years past (excepting 1923), and it has occurred to the officials of our association, that a meeting should be held of all cities in Minnesota interested in the same kind of a project, with a view of arranging a gentlemen's agreement as to the maximum sum that should be paid to ball players of this class.

"Any one with past experience in this line of sport knows that rural districts have been forced to put up with unreasonable demands by players and in fact managers have vied with each other to see who could separate himself with the most money in the desire to put over a win.

"Baseball is such a wonderful game and it has the American public on its side that it should be the ambition of every management to back up this cleanest of all outdoor sports with clean and honorable methods between the contesting teams."

NORTHERN PACIFIC OLD TIMERS ASSOCIATION

The suggestion of Superintendent J. P. Anderson, made at the banquet tendered G. F. Mitchell and W. E. Corkrey, men retiring from service with the Northern Pacific railway company, that they assist to form an Old Timers' association, is a most worthy one and should be followed up.

A railway is something more than mere rails and engines, bridges and roadbed. Back of it and forming the real bulwark, the foundation, is the working organization and that is only a source of strength and real power when it exemplifies itself in the qualities of ability, devotion and loyalty as shown by the guests of honor, Messrs. Mitchell and Corkrey, with each having over a quarter century of honorable service to his credit.

The Old Timers' association of the Great Northern railway is an institution on that road. Those men paid annual and sometimes more frequent visits to their old chief, James J. Hill, and he held the organization in the highest regard. Those ex-service men, as you may call them, acted in an advisory capacity and took the deepest interest in the road and its workings, and proved a real inspiration to the younger men.

The efficiency of the Brainerd shop foremen's organization, shared in also by Past Foremen Mitchell and Corkrey, can be shown when one realizes that the Northern Pacific railway company with other lines last year moved a greater tonnage than in any of the two preceding years. More freight was moved and faster time made. A large factor in such a record was the prompt repair work done at the railway shops, for keeping equipment up to the highest notch in efficiency also aids in solving the transportation problem.

We here in Brainerd take a deep interest in the Shop Foremen's organization. It is part of the foundation of Brainerd's prosperity, for without the shop industry there would be no thriving Brainerd. We are glad to hear the words of commendation from Silas Zwight, general mechanical superintendent, when he said the shops were doing fine and turning out good work.

TAX REDUCTION

BRainerd Chamber of Commerce, in its appointment of a special committee on tax reduction, has taken a forward step which has been copied on the Mesaba range and Virginia's Chamber of Commerce is planning a county tax conference.

Hitherto, protests against tax levies in St. Louis county have been unorganized, and not always based on widespread information on tax matters. The Virginia Chamber of Commerce plan is one which will interest the Brainerd Chamber committee. Its workings will be followed with deep interest and the results achieved noted.

The Virginia Chamber of Commerce proposes a carefully planned study of tax matters. Representatives of the various municipalities in the county, the town boards and township boards, will be asked to assemble in Virginia and discuss the county's tax problems. More than 200 invitations have been sent out, and it is planned to form a more or less permanent organization which will meet at stated intervals. Each municipality in the county, and possibly each town or township, will be urged to form a local tax committee.

Little Falls has also taken up the problem in almost similar manner as Virginia.

SUCH IS LIFE

JUST after we penned a tribute to Howard Carter and praised his work as a tomb explorer and Egyptologist and the reverence he was showing to things historical and religious in the life of the Pharaoh dynasties of 3,300 years ago, friction has arisen between Mr. Carter and the Egyptian government and it looks as though Carter, just when he raised the lid of the sarcophagus, is to let it fall back on the mummy case, with no further revelations made to an expectant world.

SEMI-PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL

BRainerd baseball enthusiasts have received a communication from H. P. Marx, president of the Shakopee Baseball association, asking Brainerd fans to have a delegate at a meeting called at St. Francis hotel, St. Paul, Sunday, March 2, at 2 p. m., to organize a semi-professional baseball league of Minnesota for the protection of associations and for the purpose of promoting the spirit of fair play in all contests of the diamond.

The Dispatch does not believe in semi-professional baseball. Brainerd had a taste of it and the salaries demanded by semi-professional players were higher in the end than even league association men were said to receive. If we are to have any kind of home baseball, let it be purely amateur. That will develop our home men and give them a chance. The country outside of St. Paul and Minneapolis gains nothing in the end by importing semi-professional players from these cities, or other places, and in the bidding for their service have communities bid against each other and thus give the big city men or others an exaggerated idea of their own importance.

St. Cloud last year had a taste of semi-professional baseball and did not appear to relish it either. And now Shakopee gets the bug. Here is what President Marx of Shakopee writes:

"Shakopee proposes to back and support a semi-professional baseball club the coming summer, as it has for several years past (excepting 1923), and it has occurred to the officials of our association, that a meeting should be held of all cities in Minnesota interested in the same kind of a project, with a view of arranging a gentlemen's agreement as to the maximum sum that should be paid to ball players of this class.

"Any one with past experience in this line of sport knows that rural districts have been forced to put up with unreasonable demands by players and in fact managers have vied with each other to see who could separate himself with the most money in the desire to put over a win.

"Baseball is such a wonderful game and it has the American public on its side that it should be the ambition of every management to back up this cleanest of all outdoor sports with clean and honorable methods between the contesting teams."

PATRIOTIC PROGRAM AT THE WHITTIER

Presented on February 12, Lincoln's Birthday, Flags Used to Decorate School Rooms

MUSIC SPECIALLY ATTRACTIVE

Kirk Smith, Representing the American Legion, Was Speaker, Woman's Relief Corps Gives Flags

The children and teachers of the Whittier school presented three excellent patriotic programs on the morning of February 12th, Lincoln's birthday.

The first and second grades met in Miss Walsh's room, where pictures on patriotic subjects were on display and the colors of the flag used for decoration. In these grades every child was on the program with the exception of those who have been absent on account of illness. Each child in Miss Walsh's room held a good sized flag during the program.

In Miss Hopper's section of the program were several glad exercises, with a large flag especially well handled by one little girl. One attractive song was sung by a large group of children, each child carrying the flag of a foreign nation, while in front of them all was displayed the large American flag.

The third and fourth grades met in Miss Sager's room. Here two costumed playlets were given, one called "Lincoln, the student." An exercise of famous flags given by pupils of Miss Schmidt's room was very good. This showed the evolution of flags from the time of St. George to the American flag, the Red Cross flag and the flag of peace. Exercises, recitations and songs completed the program.

Pupils from the fifth and sixth grade rooms met with Miss Barrett's classes for their program. A number of recitations by an entire room were splendidly given. Miss Irwin's room gave "Barbara Fritchle" exceptionally well. Miss Thompson's pupils gave Riley's "Old Glory," and Miss Barrett's pupils began with "The landing of the Pilgrims" and then gave the Gettysburg address, a patriotic poem of Edgar Guest's and Kipling's "Recessional." They are prepared to recite the Preamble to the Constitution but this was not used. Other recitations and readings were all splendidly given.

The music of the upper grades deserves special mention. A number of very good bass voices are developing and the boys carry a lower part very creditably. The pupils do part singing almost entirely and sing splendidly. The music of these grades has progressed greatly under Miss Irwin's direction. Among the songs sung were "The chorus of Pilgrims" from an opera by Verdi, and the "Old Oaken Bucket" in which the melody was carried in the bass.

Kirk Smith representing the American Legion, gave a short talk to the pupils. Mrs. L. Hohman and Mrs. George Anderson representing the Women's Relief Corps, presented two handsome silk flags to the school. These were dedicated by the school children who stood and gave the flag salute.

Supt. W. C. Cobb showed a newspaper printed in 1800, the week after Washington's death and Miss Barrett had a very interesting paper printed the day after Lincoln's assassination. Miss Barrett also had on display a splendid collection of pictures on patriotic subjects.

All of these programs showed an active patriotic spirit and teachers and pupils are to be commended for this even more than for the accuracy of presentation.

A short parent-teachers meeting followed the program. The school is using a beautiful new flag and a movement is on foot to secure and erect a flag pole in the school yard so that the displaying of the flag may be more easily and safely accomplished and so that the children may learn to have a respectful part in handling it.

Mrs. J. R. Smith of the relief committee stated that there is need of clothing at this time. Either she or the city nurse will be glad to receive donation.

CHAUFFEUR LICENSES

Examination For Same to be Conducted Soon, See Chief of Police About the Same

The police department has made arrangements to conduct an examination in the near future for chauffeurs and driver's license, and requests that all who come under the chauffeur's law make application for a license at the office of the chief of police as soon as possible. The examination will be conducted in the municipal court room in the city hall at a date to be announced soon.

The following is a ruling from the Attorney General:

The term 'chauffeur' shall mean any person operating or driving a motor vehicle as an employee or for hire.

The driver of a motor vehicle engaged in carrying passengers or merchandise for others and who makes a charge for the service rendered, is within this definition, even though he owns the vehicle engaged in that service.

LOUIS WICKS HAS PASSED AWAY

Was a Pioneer Farmer of the County, Death Came From Heart Trouble

FARMED IN MAPLE GROVE
Was Member of Farmers Cooperative Creamery Association Near South Long Lake

Louis Wicks, one of the pioneer farmers of Crow Wing county, passed away at a local hospital Thursday, death resulting from heart trouble.

Mr. Wicks was born near Milwaukee, Wisconsin, October 14th, 1849. He moved from Wisconsin to Iowa and then to Brainerd, coming here about 45 years ago, and making his home on a farm in Maple Grove township near South Long lake ever since.

In January, 1895 Mr. Wicks was united in marriage to Miss Martha Olson. Three children were born to this union, being Mrs. Bertha Erickson, of Pillager, Mrs. Olaf Fahlstrom and George Wicks, both of Brainerd. Beside his widow and children, he is survived by a sister, Mrs. Kate Wesley, of Bemidji, and Mrs. Earl Briggs, of Oelwein, Iowa, and two brothers, Joseph of Riceville, Iowa and William of Brainerd.

Mr. Wicks was counted as one of the most successful farmers in the county. He settled on his land as a homestead, and has improved it to a very high point. He took an active interest in public affairs, and was a member of the farmers co-operative creamery association near South Long lake.

The funeral will be conducted at St. Francis Catholic church on Saturday morning at 8:30, and interment made in Evergreen cemetery.

LOWELL PARENT TEACHERS

Adopt Resolutions Approving Institutions of City and County Nurses and Child Welfare Board

The Lowell Parent Teachers association held a short meeting after the program given by the children on Lincoln's birthday. The president, Mrs. Forsberg, called the attention of the meeting to the alleged question that has been raised of dispensing with the services of the city and county nurses and the Child Welfare Board.

The association passed a resolution to go on record as approving of these institutions and recognizing the need for the further continuance of all three in their full working capacity and with the usual financial support.

NEW LAMP BURNS

94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. ## PATRIOTIC PROGRAM AT THE WHITTIER

MUSIC SPECIALLY ATTRACTIVE

Kirk Smith, Representing the American Legion, Was Speaker, Woman's Relief Corps Gives Flags

The children and teachers of the Whittier school presented three excellent patriotic programs on the morning of February 12th, Lincoln's birthday.

The first and second grades met in Miss Walsh's room, where pictures on patriotic subjects were on display and the colors of the flag used for decoration. In these grades every child was on the program with the exception of those who have been absent on account of illness. Each child in Miss Walsh's room held a good sized flag during the program.

In Miss Hopper's section of the program were several glad exercises, with a large flag especially well handled by one little girl. One attractive song was sung by a large group of children, each child carrying the flag of a foreign nation, while in front of them all was displayed the large American flag.

The third and fourth grades met in Miss Sager's room. Here two costumed playlets were given, one called "Lincoln, the student." An exercise of famous flags given by pupils of Miss Schmitt's room was very good. This showed the evolution of flags from the time of St. George to the American flag, the Red Cross flag and the flag of peace. Exercises, recitations and songs completed the program.

Pupils from the fifth and sixth grade rooms met with Miss Barrett's classes for their program. A number of recitations by an entire room were splendidly given. Miss Irwin's room gave "Barbara Fritchie" exceptionally well. Miss Thompson's pupils gave Riley's "Old Glory," and Miss Barrett's pupils began with "The Landing of the Pilgrims" and then gave the Gettysburg address, a patriotic poem of Edgar Guest's and Kipling's "Recessional." They are prepared to recite the Preamble to the Constitution but this was not used. Other recitations and readings were all splendidly given.

The music of the upper grades deserves special mention. A number of very good bass voices are developing and the boys carry a lower part very creditably. The pupils do part singing almost entirely and sing splendidly. The music of these grades has progressed greatly under Miss Irwin's direction. Among the songs sung were "The choruses of Pilgrims" from an opera by Verdi, and the "Old Oaken Bucket" in which the melody was carried in the bass.

Kirk Smith representing the American Legion, gave a short talk to the pupils. Mrs. L. Hohman and Mrs. George Anderson representing the Women's Relief Corps, presented two handsome silk flags to the school. These were dedicated by the school children who stood and gave the flag salute.

Supt. W. C. Cobb showed a newspaper printed in 1800, the week after Washington's death and Miss Barrett had a very interesting paper printed the day after Lincoln's assassination. Miss Barrett also had on display a splendid collection of pictures on patriotic subjects.

All of these programs showed an active patriotic spirit and teachers and pupils are to be commended for this even more than for the accuracy of presentation.

A short parent-teachers meeting followed the program. The school is using a beautiful new flag and movement is on foot to secure and erect a flag pole in the school yard so that the displaying of the flag may be more easily and safely accomplished and so that the children may learn to have a respectful part in handling it.

Mrs. J. R. Smith of the relief committee stated that there is need of clothing at this time. Either she or the city nurse will be glad to receive donation.

CHAUFFEUR LICENSES

Examination For Same to be Conducted Soon. See Chief of Police About the Same

The police department has made arrangements to conduct an examination in the near future for chauffeurs and driver's license, and requests that all who come under the chauffeur's law make application for a license at the office of the chief of police as soon as possible. The examination will be conducted in the municipal court room in the city hall at a date to be announced soon. The following is a ruling from the Attorney General:

The term 'chauffeur' shall mean any person operating or driving a motor vehicle as an employee or for hire.

The driver of a motor vehicle engaged in carrying passengers or merchandise for others and who makes a charge for the service rendered, is within this definition, even though he owns the vehicle engaged in that service.

LOUIS WICKS HAS PASSED AWAY

Was a Pioneer Farmer of the County, Death Came From Heart Trouble

FARMED IN MAPLE GROVE
Was Member of Farmers Cooperative Creamery Association Near South Long Lake

Louis Wicks, one of the pioneer farmers of Crow Wing county, passed away at a local hospital Thursday, death resulting from heart trouble.

Mr. Wicks was born near Milwaukee, Wisconsin, October 14th, 1849. He moved from Wisconsin to Iowa and then to Brainerd, coming here about 45 years ago, and making his home on a farm in Maple Grove township near South Long lake ever since.

In January, 1895 Mr. Wicks was united in marriage to Miss Martha Olson. Three children were born to this union, being Mrs. Bertha Erickson, of Pillager, Mrs. Olaf Fahnestrom and George Wicks, both of Brainerd. Beside his widow and children, he is survived by a sister, Mrs. Kate Wesley, of Benidji, and Mrs. Earl Briggs, of Osceola, Iowa, and two brothers, Joseph of Riceville, Iowa and William of Brainerd.

MORAN LACKS BRAINS TO WHIP BENNY

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Feb. 15.—When it was taken into consideration how many times Charley White had been stopped and when the caliber of the fighters who did it were recalled, it was not unnatural that Pat Moran, the New Orleans lightweight, should have been rated as the fighter next to Benny Leonard when he knocked out the veteran Chicago lightweight.

Perhaps it is still a fact that Moran is the outstanding contender for the crown of Benny Leonard, but if he is the best man in the class next to the champion, Leonard is in no more immediate danger of being ejected from his throne room than Jack Dempsey is.

Strong as he is at 135 pounds, cool as he is under fire and punching as he can with his right hand, Moran showed in his recent fight with Johnny Dundee that he has yet to learn how to beat a clever fighter with a brain.

Moran was outwitted by Dundee. Against the feeble puncher that Dundee is known to be, Moran, if he had enough mental agility, should have torn into Dundee with a willingness to take a tantalizing left hand for the chance to counter with his right hand.

Moran didn't do that, however. His mental sluggishness permitted Dundee to fight just the kind of a fight that Dundee wanted to fight. It's hard to beat a brainy, experienced fighter who is allowed to fight his own kind of a battle.

If Moran fought his real fight against Dundee, if he was not sick, as he seemed to be, he has no chance to beat Benny Leonard. For several years at least Leonard is not to be beaten by an opponent who permits the champion to fight his own way. To make Leonard fight any other way is something for a very brainy fighter to accomplish and Moran does not seem to qualify as a brainy fighter.

Granting that Moran did make a very creditable showing against the champion a year or more ago and with a willingness to admit that Moran may have improved more in the interim than Leonard has, yet it would not be reasonable to contend that Moran has any advantage over Leonard by reason of their first meeting. On the other hand, it might be argued with a lot of sound logic behind the argument that Leonard was the one who would come out of the fight with the advantage that he might have and must have learned a lot more about Moran in that fight than Moran learned about Leonard.

McCANN ARRIVES CONFIDENT OF WIN OVER FRED FULTON

Minneapolis, Feb. 14.—Bristling under the remarks made by Fred Fulton and others that he ran out of the bout with the Minnesota plasterer last December, Joe McCann arrived in Minneapolis ready for Friday night's encounter. He was accompanied by Joe Jacobs, New York, who recently severed his connections with Mike McTigue, world's light heavyweight champion.

McCann is in excellent physical condition and ready to step 10 rounds at a fast pace.

"It makes me laugh when I hear the stories Fulton and others circulated about the calling off of our bout last December," said McCann. "Why should I be afraid of a man who has been knocked over in a punch for the full count and one who is the most uncertain quantity in the fight game? I've been beaten. Firpo knocked me out, but he knew he was in a fight. He put me down five times before my seconds threw in the towel, but I had the satisfaction of putting him down twice, the first man to send him to the canvas. I feel confident that I can beat Fulton. I have youth in my favor and if he obliges me by swapping right hands, the fight will be over when I land. I know I will get up when he lands, but I don't think he will. I'll out-game him and beat him unless he knocks me stiff."

CLAIM FALSE REPORTS ON STATE TIMBER

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Feb. 13.—False reports of the amount of timber on state lands was charged today in the state's lumber suit.

Assistant Attorney General James C. Markham, conducting the case, at the same time intimated that a state official was in the employ of a lumber company at the same time he was doing state work.

The charges were made during the trial of the case of the state against R. L. Horr, Minneapolis lumberman, for $19,004.54 alleged to be due for timber sold by the state on land belonging to the state.

Figures were presented to show that reports by the state employee showed less than one-fourth of the timber that later was found to be on certain lands. The trial started 10 days ago.

Duluth, and N. P. White, master mechanic of Staples were the next speakers. Both added their tributes to the guests of the evening. Other speakers following were F. L. Newman, general foreman of Staples; M. H. Nelson, general foreman of the Brainerd shops and D. K. Fullerton, general car shop foreman.

Edward Crust was introduced by the toastmaster as the man who believed the blacksmiths were responsible for building King Solomon's temple. He didn't refer to it, as he said it was self evident that any day the blacksmiths ceased to run their forges and handle their tools, then the Northern Pacific would quit running trains. He recalled old history of the railway and gave the lines of succession of the shop superintendents and superintendents of motive power. It was hard work in the old days where there was no electric light to guide the workers, when shops were a third of the present size and power one-third its present ratio. "We are like spokes in a wheel," said Mr. Crust, in conclusion, referring to the various foremen, "and J. P. Anderson is the hub."

R. E. Croger, boiler shop foreman, and H. L. Jones, division storekeeper, were the next speakers. Mr. Croger referred to the team work and efficiency which the foremen's organization contributed to and Mr. Jones, when asked to explain why there wasn't more prompt delivery, said: "We are certainly getting a lot of delivery tonight."

The ladies, called upon by the toastmaster, responded briefly. Mrs. J. P. Anderson expressed her pleasure at being at the gathering and Mrs. C. D. McKay told of early acquaintances in Brainerd from 1879 on. Before they even came to the town they had stereopticon views showing the round house, depot, headquarters hotel, etc. She was well acquainted with Mr. Mitchell and family and Mr. Corkrey and family.

Robert Crust, youngest member of the shop foremen's association, added his tribute to the two guests, as did J. F. Elkins, assistant to the boiler shop foreman, and C. D. McKay, erecting foreman. Mr. Elkins expressed his pleasure at having Mr. Zwight present, talking to the men at the shops and to the foremen at the banquet. "The two men at the head of the table Messrs. Mitchell and Corkrey, have worked hard to keep your organization together. If it wasn't for the old men, the young men wouldn't amount to much," said Mr. Elkins in conclusion.

Silas Zwight, in conclusion, concurred in the good spirit shown and said the men had a good organization in their mechanical department. The two gentlemen honored this evening represented this class, initiated the organization and made it possible to survive. He hoped the good spirit and good fellowship shown would always continue. He congratulated the ladies on their presence.

Toastmaster Casey thanked all for attending the banquet, added his testimonial to those of other speakers in praising Messrs. Mitchell and Corkrey and the banquet came to an end.

ONE MILLION SLUSH TO COVER LOSSES OF MARKET PLUNGERS

have heard some reports about the price of transaction. What was bought, as I understood it, was only a part interest. I do not even know of my own knowledge the exact price of it.

"The current story was $550,000. I have heard it was $600 a share. I do not know how many shares were involved.

"I have heard that a payment of $10,000 a year was to be made for a contributing editor, but that it was to go to Mrs. Harding in the event of Harding's death.

"I have no information as to the value of the paper. I understand newspapers are generally valued at 12 per cent of the capital for a country newspaper, at ten per cent for a city paper."

"Do you know anything about the earnings of that paper?"

"I know nothing but I have heard from $30,000 to $70,000."

OWEN J. ROBERTS NAMED AS COUNSEL

Washington, Feb. 15.—Owen J. Roberts of Philadelphia was nominated by President Coolidge today to be prosecution counsel in the oil lease case.

Roberts' nomination was sent to the senate shortly after noon.

Roberts was nominated to succeed Silas H. Strawn of Chicago, whose name was withdrawn by President

Coolidge when the senate public lands committee declined to approve him because of his connection with two "Standard Oil" banks in Chicago.

Roberts was endorsed by Senator Pepper of Pennsylvania.

Roberts, if approved by the senate will become the republican member of the government's prosecuting team. He is a well known manager of the bar in Philadelphia. He has been called on several occasions to take part in prosecutions of large corporations and has always avoided any public connections that might interfere with his work in such cases, the president was informed.

Roberts was summoned by the senate committee today shortly after his nomination was sent to the senate by President Coolidge. He entered the committee room shortly before one o'clock for questioning in executive session as to his qualifications.

Washington, Feb. 15.—Federal regulation of the oil industry to prevent profiteering in gasoline and other products is provided in a bill soon to be presented by Senator LaFollette, Wisconsin.

LaFollette's national regulation plan embodies conclusions reached in his long and comprehensive investigation of oil and gasoline before the senate manufacturers' committee. It is intended to meet such situations as Governor Bryan of Nebraska and Governor McMaster of South Dakota have complained of to President Coolidge—boosting of gasoline prices by refineries so that state government cannot control the alleged profiteering.

Provisions of LaFollette's bill are being carefully guarded because of their possible effect on the speculative oil market.

The bill, however, covers these conclusions reached by the committee concerning combination and manipulation in the industry which were set forth in the report as follows:

"It is essential to the life of the industry and vital to the public also that neither the public nor the small independent producers and refiners shall be left as at present at the mercy of the combination which advances and depresses the prices as it pleases.

"Unless some means can be found to prevent the manipulation of prices by the large companies and particularly the Standard group it is as certain as any future event can be that gasoline prices in the future will be so advanced as to put gasoline beyond the public generally as a motor fuel."

AMUSEMENTS

"Blinky" is Best Story Hoot Ever

Had; It's Riot of Mirth
"Blinky," Gene Markey's famous story of army life, provides a new comedy vehicle for Hoot Gibson in the Universal special production to be shown at the Lyceum Theatre tonight and Saturday. It is a mixture of thrills and laughs; it carries the spectator to the climax of an exciting or spectacular situation and then turns it into laughter, in one of the most original stories yet presented by the cowboy star.

"Blinky" is the story of a pampered son of an old army officer who through "pull" wins a commission in the army, and is sent to a border cavalry camp to "break in." His adventures are manifold and uproarious, from the time he takes his first riding lesson to the climax, where he rescues the major's daughter from kidnappers—and then turns the situation into a laugh—and a romance.

Six Famous Film Actors in 'Six Days'

The all-star cast at one time was considered something new in the picture world. But now it has become the accepted thing with motion picture audiences. Producers in their efforts to make a higher class of pictures have seen the necessity of selecting the best players available.

Charles Brabin, in his production of Elinor Glyn's sensational story, "Six Days," coming to the New Park Theatre Saturday and Sunday, spent more than a month in choosing players for the cast.

Buck is World's Only St. Bernard Dog Star

Well, the anxious suspense is over! "The Call of the Wild," which Mr. Fred Jackman has just filmed for me master, Hal Roach, has been successfully pre-viewed. And I might as well admit—at least to myself—that I have been very anxious. Of course a dog of my ancient lineage does not make a vulgar display of his feelings, but it has been a little difficult to remain dignified and maintain an appearance of tranquility when all the time I was really dreadfully nervous

MORAN LACKS BRAINS TO WHIP BENNY

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Feb. 15.—When it was taken into consideration how many times Charley White had been stopped and when the caliber of the fighters who did it was recalled, it was not unnatural that Pal Moran, the New Orleans lightweight, should have been rated as the fighter next to Benny Leonard when he knocked out the veteran Chicago lightweight.

Perhaps it is still a fact that Moran is the outstanding contender for the crown of Benny Leonard, but if he is the best man in the class next to the champion, Leonard is in no more immediate danger of being ejected from his throne room than Jack Dempsey is.

Strong as he is at 135 pounds, cool as he is under fire and punching as he can with his right hand, Moran showed in his recent fight with Johnny Dundee that he has yet to learn how to beat a clever fighter with a brain.

Moran was outwitted by Dundee. Against the feeble puncher that Dundee is known to be, Moran, if he had enough mental agility, should have torn into Dundee with a willingness to take a tantalizing left hand for the chance to counter with his right hand.

Moran didn't do that, however. His mental sluggishness permitted Dundee to fight just the kind of a fight that Dundee wanted to fight. It's hard to beat a brainy, experienced fighter who is allowed to fight his own kind of a battle.

If Moran fought his real fight against Dundee, if he was not sick, as he seemed to be, he has no chance to beat Benny Leonard. For several years at least Leonard is not to be beaten by an opponent who permits the champion to fight his own way. To make Leonard fight any other way is something for a very brainy fighter to accomplish and Moran does not seem to qualify as a brainy fighter.

Granting that Moran did make a very creditable showing against the champion a year or more ago and with a willingness to admit that Moran may have improved more in the interim than Leonard has, yet it would not be reasonable to contend that Moran has any advantage over Leonard by reason of their first meeting. On the other hand, it might be argued with a lot of sound logic behind the argument that Leonard was the one who would come out of the fight with the advantage that he might have and must have learned a lot more about Moran in that fight than Moran learned about Leonard.

MCCANN ARRIVES CONFIDENT OF WIN OVER FRED FULTON

Minneapolis, Feb. 14.—Bristling under the remarks made by Fred Fulton and others that he ran out of the bout with the Minnesota plasterer last December, Joe McCann arrived in Minneapolis ready for Friday night's encounter. He was accompanied by Joe Jacobs, New York, who recently severed his connections with Mike McTigue, world's light heavyweight champion.

McCann is in excellent physical condition and ready to step 10 rounds at a fast pace.

"It makes me laugh when I hear the stories Fulton and others circulated about the calling off of our bout last December," said McCann. "Why should I be afraid of a man who has been knocked over in a punch for the full count and one who is the most uncertain quantity in the fight game? I've been beaten. Firpo knocked me out, but he knew he was in a fight. He put me down five times before my seconds threw in the towel, but I had the satisfaction of putting him down twice, the first man to send him to the canvas. I feel confident that I can beat Fulton. I have youth in my favor and if he obliges me by swapping right hands, the fight will be over when I land. I know I will get up when he lands, but I don't think he will. I'll out-game him and beat him unless he knocks me stiff."

CLAIM FALSE REPORTS ON STATE TIMBER

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Feb. 13.—False reports of the amount of timber on state lands was charged today in the state's lumber suit.

Assistant Attorney General James C. Markham, conducting the case, at the same time intimated that a state official was in the employ of a lumber company at the same time he was doing state work.

The charges were made during the trial of the case of the state against R. L. Horr, Minneapolis lumberman, for $19,004.54 alleged to be due for timber sold by the state on land belonging to the state.

Figures were presented to show that reports by the state employee showed less than one-fourth of the timber that later was found to be on certain lands. The trial started 10 days ago.

Duluth, and N. P. White, master mechanic of Staples were the next speakers. Both added their tributes to the guests of the evening. Other speakers following were F. L. Newman, general foreman of Staples; M. H. Nelson, general foreman of the Brainerd shops and D. K. Fullerton, general car shop foreman.

Edward Crust was introduced by the toastmaster as the man who believed the blacksmiths were responsible for building King Solomon's temple. He didn't refer to it, as he said it was self evident that any day the blacksmiths ceased to run their forges and handle their tools, then the Northern Pacific would quit running trains. He recalled old history of the railway and gave the lines of succession of the shop superintendents and superintendents of motive power. It was hard work in the old days where there was no electric light to guide the workers, when shops were a third of the present size and power one-third its present ratio. "We are like spokes in a wheel," said Mr. Crust, in conclusion, referring to the various foremen, "and J. P. Anderson is the hub."

R. E. Creger, boiler shop foreman, and H. L. Jones, division storekeeper, were the next speakers. Mr. Creger referred to the team work and efficiency which the foremen's organization contributed to and Mr. Jones, when asked to explain why there wasn't more prompt delivery, said: "We are certainly getting a lot of delivery tonight."

The ladies, called upon by the toastmaster, responded briefly. Mrs. J. P. Anderson expressed her pleasure at being at the gathering and Mrs. C. D. McKay told of early acquaintances in Brainerd from 1879 on. Before they even came to the town they had stereotyped views showing the round house, depot, headquarters hotel, etc. She was well acquainted with Mr. Mitchell and family and Mr. Corkrey and family.

Robert Crust, youngest member of the shop foremen's association, added his tribute to the two guests, as did J. F. Elkins, assistant to the boiler shop foreman, and C. D. McKay, erecting foreman. Mr. Elkins expressed his pleasure at having Mr. Zwigth present, talking to the men at the shops and to the foremen at the banquet. "The two men at the head of the table Messrs. Mitchell and Corkrey, have worked hard to keep your organization together. If it wasn't for the old men, the young men wouldn't amount to much," said Mr. Elkins in conclusion.

Silas Zwigth, in conclusion, concurred in the good spirit shown and said the men had a good organization in their mechanical department. The two gentlemen honored this evening represented this class, initiated the organization and made it possible to survive. He hoped the good spirit and good fellowship shown would always continue. He congratulated the ladies on their presence.

Toastmaster Casey thanked all for attending the banquet, added his testimonial to those of other speakers in praising Messrs. Mitchell and Corkrey and the banquet came to an end.

"The current story was $550,000. I have heard it was $600 a share. I do not know how many shares were involved.

"I have heard that a payment of $10,000 a year was to be made for a contributing editor, but that it was to go to Mrs. Harding in the event of Harding's death.

"I have no information as to the value of the paper. I understand newspapers are generally valued at 12 per cent of the capital for a country newspaper, at ten per cent for a city paper."

"Do you know anything about the earnings of that paper?"

AMUSEMENTS

"Blinky" is Best Story Hoot Ever Had; It's Riot of Mirth
"Blinky," Gene Markey's famous story of army life, provides a new comedy vehicle for Hoot Gibson in the Universal special production to be shown at the Lyceum Theatre to-night and Saturday. It is a mixture of thrills and laughs; it carries the spectator to the climax of an exciting or spectacular situation and then turns it into laughter, in one of the most original stories yet presented by the cowboy star.

"Blinky" is the story of a pampered son of an old army officer who through "pull" wins a commission in the army, and is sent to a border cavalry camp to "break in." His adventures are manifold and uproarious, from the time he takes his first riding lesson to the climax, where he rescues the major's daughter from kidnappers—and then turns the situation into a laugh—and a romance.

Six Famous Film Actors in 'Six Days'

The all-star cast at one time was considered something new in the picture world. But now it has become the accepted thing with motion picture audiences. Producers in their efforts to make a higher class of pictures have seen the necessity of selecting the best players available.

Charles Brabin, in his production of Elinor Glyn's sensational story, "Six Days," coming to the New Park Theatre Saturday and Sunday, spent more than a month in choosing players for the cast.

Buck is World's Only St. Bernard Dog Star

(By Buck)

Well, the anxious suspense is over! "The Call of the Wild," which Mr. Fred Jackman has just filmed for my master, Hal Roach, has been successfully pre-viewed. And I might as well admit—at least to myself—that I have been very anxious. Of course a dog of my ancient lineage does not make a vulgar display of his feelings, but it has been a little difficult to remain dignified and maintain an appearance of tranquility when all the time I was really dreadfully nervous

Cattle Raising Lags on American Farms

While the number of cattle raised in the United States has been maintained at a comparatively high level, says the National Bank of Commerce of Chicago, in a recent survey of the live stock industry, it has by no means kept pace with the increase in population. However, it is said, after a few years of continuous cultivation even virgin soil loses its power to produce abundant crops. As a means of maintaining soil fertility, the live stock industry is of fundamental importance to permanent agriculture, and as the bank points out, is widely practiced in the corn belt, where grain, especially corn, is marketed in the form of live stock. "Maintenance of soil productivity is so important to the farmer," continues the bank, "that it is an item to include in determining net profit derived from raising and fattening cattle."

"It is estimated that 85 per cent of the corn produced in the United States is fed to live stock and 15 per cent is fed to cattle. Approximately 85 per cent of the native beef steers marketed in Chicago are fattened after having been purchased as stockers and feeders. Possibilities of further developing the beef cattle industry in this country are indicated by a recent survey by the Department of Agriculture, which indicates that beef cattle are kept only on 23 per cent of all farms in the United States."

The survey mentions the increased activity by American consumers of leather as being partly offset by decreased consumption in Europe, and says: "However, it has not been sufficient to cause prices of cattle hides and calf skins to advance permanently in proportion to the rise in the general price level of commodities."

Small Sacred Horse Japan's Oddest Thing

In the famed park in Nara, Japan, there is a sacred horse. This shaggy, under-sized animal is said by the Japan Advertiser to be the funniest thing in Japan.

He is pure white and has one blue eye and one pink one. He is kept in a small stable with a square hole for him to poke out his head to eat the oats which tourists bring him.

The third largest bell in Japan hangs in Nara park, which contains 1,250 acres, and throughout which more than 3,000 stone and metal lanterns are scattered. Six hundred tame deer roam at will in the park.

Also in Nara park there is one of the three gigantic bronze Buddhas, and the largest. The others are at Osaka and Kanakura.

One of the most venerated of Shinto shrines—Kasuga no Miya—is the goal of thousands of pilgrims every year.

Kingsbury Got Even

K. R. Kingsbury, president of the Standard Oil company, on a recent trip to New York, was presented with a bag of onions at every important stop—the thoughtful gift of Herbert Fleischacker, the millionaire banker.

Kingsbury took the onions, and kept quiet until Fleischacker had a birthday.

On arriving at his office, Fleischacker found several large cages of birds awaiting him, gifts from Kingsbury. In the morning messengers arrived with cages of white rats, mice and parrots, while at luncheon the waiter brought another cage of birds. In the afternoon rabbits arrived by the dozen.

The climax came at night when a truck drove up to his home and left two water buffalo, brought from India. All gifts bore Kingsbury's card.—Los Angeles Times.

Goose Had Viking Gold

According to a Reuter dispatch from Bergen, a small boy, living at Rogaland, Norway, was recently the hero of an adventure which reads like a fairy story.

The youngster had driven a flock of geese to the village pond and was on the point of herding them back to his father's farm when he noticed a glint of gold in the beak of one of the birds. He caught the goose and removed from its craw a beautiful brooch of very curious design. This he took to the conservator of the Stavanger museum who pronounced it an unusually rare and beautiful specimen of the goldsmith's art, dating, he declared, from the era of the Vikings.

Of Course

The youthful bugler wore a proud smile as he turned out on parade for the first time. He was accosted by an officer and asked if he knew all the bugle calls.

"Not all, perhaps, sir," he admitted, modestly, "but I know most of them."

"Well, now," continued the officer, "what would you do in case of fire?"

"Blow the call for lights out, sir,"—Los Angeles Times.

Blames Thackeray

J. L. thinks that Thackeray started one of the slang expressions we use today and by way of proof quotes as follows: "How are you, Sedley?" asked a character in "Vanity Fair." "There's a hackney coachman downstairs . . . vowing he'll have the law on you."

"What do you mean, law?" Sedley faintly asked.—Boston Transcript.
